

LA Grand Prix Scholarship Fund

- Who We Pay

In accordance with USBC rules, the institution must be an "accredited institution" of higher education and learning as defined by the appropriate State Department of Education. When necessary, the participant must furnish the Foundation with information regarding the school and type of training to be pursued, etc. The Youth Director will then advise you if the course is approved for use of scholarship funds and his/her decision shall be final.